James Murry Expires of Hemorrhage in Yard of Rooming House, Shortly After Returning from Banquet.

James Murry, a foreman at the Washburn Co. stores, died suddenly last night, shortly after returning home from the Y. M. C. A. banquet. He was 45 years old.

Mr. Murry returned from the banquet about 9 o'clock to his room at 822 South Fourth street. A few minutes later Maynard Conine, another foreman, heard him groan and went to his room. Murry asked him for a physician.

When Maynard was at the telephone, Murry went staggering and into the yard where he fell. He evidently started to hours to a physician.

Dr. McKibbin answered. Maynard died and young Murry on the point of death with a pulmonary hemorrhage in progress. He died a minute later, only a few minutes after he fell to the yard.

While Murry had a pulmonary hemorrhage, Dr. McKibbin said, it was impossible to say from a cursory examination that it was brought on by tuberculosis. Murry was not known to have suffered from lung trouble. He had been under treatment for stomach and heart trouble, but appeared to be in normal health and recently passed a medical examination for life insurance.

The body was taken to C. T. French's undertaking establishment. A brother and sisters in Columbus, O., were notified of the death by telegraph.

Murry was a member of Temple Lodge, A. F. and A. M., and Rio Grande Chapter, Royal Arch Masons.

NIGHT SCHOOL NOW NUMBERS NINETY-TWO

Enrollment at the free Albuquerque high school now numbers 32, a considerable increase during the past week. Last year's total enrollment was 137 and Superintendent John Miles expects this number to be exceeded considerably before the end of the present term. The school holds sessions Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights, giving general school courses.

Mr. Miles stated today that three applications had been received for domestic science instruction. The number applying he said was not enough to justify the opening of a class, but that if as many as ten would apply a class would be opened.

District Attorney Edward D. Till-

Sanchez Accused of Daylight Robbery on Evidence of
Two Other Boys, Who Say
They Saw Loot.Discovery of more evidence that points to Pedro Sanchez, 14 years old, as the thief who entered the home ofMrs. H. G. Hall, 107 West Franklin yesterday afternoon and stole several articles of jewelry, was discovered by the police today.

Sanchez was taken into custody yesterday afternoon after Val Shuber, another boy, had Shuber shown him some of the missing jewelry.

Policeman Pablo Lujan was notified of the robbery yesterday afternoon.

Evidence was gained through a window while Mrs. Hall was away from home. Lujan suspected the shifter boy knew something of the theft and took him up. Shuber's statement incriminating Sanchez, however, was unanswered today, and

Chief McMillin was reluctant to file a complaint against Sanchez on Shuber's unsworn corroborated evidence.

This morning Police Officer Lujan located

José Mora, another boy, who described a watch which he said Sanchez showed him. The watch answered the description of one of the two taken from Mrs. Hall's house.

Mora's statement was followed by the filing of a complaint against Sanchez. He will be arraigned this afternoon at 3 o'clock before Justice of the Peace Craig.
